Immigration Lawyer Greg Siskind to Moderate National Teleconference on Haitian Immigration

Memphis, TN (January 22, 2010) – Memphis-based immigration lawyer Greg Siskind will moderate a 3-part teleconference series on Haiti Immigration Relief co-sponsored by ILW.com and the Los Angeles County Bar Association.

The first phone session “Immigration Options for Haitians” will be held on Wednesday, January 27 from 1:00 to 2:00 p.m. CST.

The teleconference will include information regarding immigration options for Haitians within the U.S., immigration options for Haitians outside the U.S. and an update on advocacy to assist lawyers and immigration assistance organizations advising Haitians on their immigration choices.

Participants will gain information from Greg Siskind, partner at Siskind Susser, LLP; Shaina Aber, Advocate at Jesuit Refugee Service in Washington, D.C.; Ira J. Kurzban, partner in the law firm Kurzban, Kurzban, Weinger & Tetzeli, P.A. of Miami, Florida; Cheryl Little, Executive Director and co-founder of Florida Immigrant Advocacy Center, Inc.; and Melanie Nezer, Senior Director for U.S. Programs and Advocacy for HIAS.

The net proceeds from the teleconference will benefit the Florida Immigrant Advocacy Center, Inc. and the Institute for Justice and Democracy in Haiti among other charitable organizations.

For more information about the teleconference series, upcoming speakers, ILW.com and to register, visit <http://www.ilw.com/seminars/haiti.shtm#bios>. Registration will close at 10:59 a.m. CST on Tuesday, January 26.
